

Please do not relax the limitations on media ownership. An objective media is a huge part of what makes America's democracy work. We need less media consolidation, not more. The deregulation of radio station ownership in the late 90's has already eliminated most of the diversity of views on local radio. Don't let this trend spread to TV and newspapers.